2001 Yearbook Dedication

Mr. Paul Tuccelli

So basically what we're talking about here is a man who personifies a model citizen of Westwood High School. He is legendary among both students and teachers alike and commands respect while instilling fear in hordes of freshmen as they read their schedule during the summer and see "Phys Ed" and "Mr. Tuccelli" on the same line. Although Mr. Tuccelli can be intimidating at first, there is no question that he is esteemed, respected, and an intense motivating force at Westwood High School. Mr. Tuccelli has been a member of the Westwood High Faculty for "X amount of years" and is a man who everybody always assumed would always be around to catch kids the one time they went to the bathroom or snuck down to the cafeteria for a minute without a pass. Without fail, you knew that if he stopped you in the hallway without a pass there would be no question that your name would be on the referral list the next day. On a more serious note, Mr. Tuccelli personifies the respectable characteristics and goals that he encourages others to achieve. He is truly a man who "practices what he preaches" and has high standards and expectations only because he holds himself to the same high standards of excellence. Mr. Tuccelli never asks his students to do anything he can't do, and in fact, it seems he could always do any gym exercise better than any of the students ever could. He is a very supportive and inspirational member of the faculty and always stresses the fact that a healthy body is the key to a healthy mind (he also stresses daily the fact that fiber should be an integral part of everybody's diet). He is truly an inspirational and important part of the Westwood High community and he will be greatly missed. We wish him luck for all that he will do and all of those he will inspire in the future. As a token of our appreciation for all that he has done for our high school community, we dedicate this 2001 yearbook so that he may treasure and always remember all he has accomplished and all of those whom he has touched.

The Class of 2001 would like to recognize the retiring teachers. We thank you for your long hours of tireless service. We thank you for being there when we needed a friend or just someone to listen. We thank you for preparing us to face the world by arming us with the knowledge we need to survive. Many of you have put in more than 30 years of service to Westwood. Words alone cannot express what you have meant to us. We thank you all.

Principal's Message

How quickly the years fly as we say farewell to the Class of 2001. It is time to end the era of four memorable high school years and move forward towards college, the military or the world of work. Whatever path you choose to follow or wherever life leads you, know that you are extraordinarily well prepared for a bright and prosperous future. You have served your school and community well and maintained the excellent reputation for which your school is widely recognized. My sincere thanks for your support, energy and successful academic and extra-curricular pursuits.

Continue to set your goals high and reach for that "little extra." Don't be afraid to dream and pursue those dreams to a healthy, prosperous, bright and successful life over the many years that lie ahead.

My sincere congratulations and best wishes.

"Agi Quod Agias"
Charles W. Flahive
Principal

A large, stylized graphic featuring a graduation cap (mortarboard) on the left, rendered with diagonal hatching. To the right of the cap, the words "A thousand ONES" are written in a large, serif font. The "A" is partially obscured by the cap. The word "thousand" is in a smaller font size than "ONES", which is in all caps and significantly larger.

Guidance

Since that first meeting in the auditorium freshman year, the guidance department has proven again and again how truly important it is to each and every student at Westwood High. From freshman year onward students have sought the support of their guidance counselors in personal, academic, and extracurricular areas. When we were each presented with that brightly-colored, two-pocket folder in the middle of junior year and the great college process began, the true value of the guidance department became once again apparent. From that initial list of colleges, to recommendations, and even stamps, we each survived the college process due to the ceaseless support of our guidance counselors. The class of 2001 is forever indebted to our wonderful guidance department including Ms Carol Armstrong, Ms. Mary LeVangie, new addition Mr. Thomas O'Connor, and Guidance secretary Mrs. Kathleen Hayes.

Front Office

Cassandra Macdonald

The class of 2001 would like to thank the front office staff for all its help! Whether we needed a dismissal pass, forgot our lunch, or arrived late to school, a trip to the front office was always a pleasant one. Mrs. Judy Dick made certain we got our messages and handled the frenzy of activities with ease. We will miss her and will always remember her fondly. The class of 2001 thanks the dedicated people who have kept the school running smoothly.

The Science and Technology department provided a variety of courses designed to prepare us for our future. High enrollments in science and the technology classes each year reflect many interesting and enjoyable course experiences including environmental studies of the behavior of the Great Blue Herons at Lyman's Pond, the spectacular release of energy in the chemistry lab from burning gummy bears, building the comfortable Adirondack chairs and 3-D model construction of homes, sodium exploding in our chemistry class sending water and flames into the ceiling, dissections of a variety of species including cats, the miniature aluminum foil boat building contest and follow-on races with mouse trap powered cars in physics and the use of computers to expand our understanding of what occurred in science experiments. Selected photographs in this yearbook have captured some of these exciting experiences and should bring fond memories for our class for many years.

Westwood High School's English Department consists of a group of dedicated professionals who love to share their passion for language, literature, and writing. These teachers, led by Dr. Terrence Earls, succeed in helping students better understand themselves and the world around them. Students entering Westwood High are enriched by two courses freshman year, Freshman English as well as Reading. After full-year courses sophomore and junior years, as well as Oral English with Mrs. Kelsch, students may select from a number of stimulating courses senior year, including Creative Writing, Humanities, youth in the Twentieth Century Literature, and two AP English courses.

The English Department expects much from its students. As a result of the high expectations and the talent of the teachers, students do exceptionally well on English assessments ranging from MCAS to SATs and AP tests. Students returning from college invariably remark on how well Westwood High had prepared them for the rigors of college writing. We extend our sincere thanks for the knowledge and skills the English teachers have so enthusiastically imparted to us.

Dr. Terrence Earls

Since freshmen year the class of 2001 has taken many incredible journeys with the social studies department. From ancient civilizations, European history, to the United States constitution and beyond a wide variety of social studies courses have been offered. The teachers of the social studies department have taught us to question analyze the world. The class of 2001 would like to thank these teachers for all their dedication and hard work.

As we enter the new millenium the Westwood High School Mathematics Department is continuing their efforts to improve the offerings available to students. During a student's four-year stay at Westwood High, WHS students are offered a comprehensive program in mathematics with a focus on developing life long learning skills as well as college preparatory skills. New courses and new approaches have been added to courses from Geometry to Calculus, from Algebra to Statistics - clearly the mathematics curriculum at WHS offers a variety of courses for students to learn about and to learn to enjoy mathematics.

As our society becomes more and more dependent on technology, the demands on students who enter college or the workforce to understand mathematics becomes even more critical to their success. We are fortunate to have a talented mathematics faculty who provide not only the fundamental concepts, but who enjoy providing those "real world" extensions of the theory to help students understand and master those difficult concepts.

As the Class of 2001 graduates and steps up to meet the challenges that face them in life, we know WHS has provided wonderful learning opportunities in mathematics that will serve them well throughout their careers.

The Best of Luck to the Class of 2001 from the Westwood High School Mathematics Department - Mrs. Emma Catalini, Chairperson, Mr. Edward Baker, Mr. Brian Baylor, Mr. Richard Hargreaves, Mr. Raymond Kodzis, Ms. Eileen Maguire, Mr. Michael Mao, and Mrs. Christine Rellera.

World Languages

Chaired by Ms. Hollis Perry, the Westwood High School World Languages department offers courses in French, Spanish, and Latin. These courses provide students with opportunities to not only learn how to speak, read, and write a foreign language, but also to better understand the cultures of the peoples who speak these languages. World Language teachers strive to impart their love of language and culture to their students in hopes that students will one day feel comfortable applying their language skills in real world situations.

Media Center

Westwood High School's media center has undergone many exciting changes over the past year. Beginning with a computerized book check out system, and many on-line research sources the media center is rapidly moving into the twenty-first century. The best new addition to the media center is still the new laptop lab. Many teachers have utilized this laptop lab to offer multimedia learning experiences to their classes. Mrs. Kristen Sloan came on board this year as our technical expert, and her knowledge and experience have enabled us to benefit fully from our new resources. Offering everything from Internet access to just a quiet place to study, the media center has been a valuable resource for every student.

Visual and Performing Arts

Hillary Tolan

The Visual and Performing Arts Department of Westwood High School allows students to enjoy a variety of classes ranging from acting to ceramics. Mr. Giurleo and Ms. Wills lead an enthusiastic music and theater program. Every year the Performing Arts Department puts on two major shows, and the students from band, chorus, jazz band, and jazz choir perform in two impressive concerts. In addition Ms. Kaiser and Mrs. DesPres run a successful as well as challenging art program. Their art and ceramics students create projects and display them all year long. Thanks to the dedication of our performing and visual arts teachers, the students of Westwood High School have learned valuable lessons and had experiences that they will remember with pride for the rest of their lives.

Business and Technology

For some students Westwood High School's Business and Technology Department is one of the most important specialized areas of education in the school. This department provides students with skills that can be used in the business and industrial worlds. Computer Applications, Accounting, Principles of Law and the Justice System are among some of the courses offered in the business department. The Industrial Arts Department, directed by Charles Kacamburas, offers classes in wood-working, architectural design and graphic arts. These courses have provided numerous valuable life skills for many students at Westwood High.

Wellness and Athletics

Dr. Joseph Gearon

Wellness and Athletics represent an important part in the total education program of Westwood High School. The wellness and athletic activities in which students participate are determined by the season, student choice, and the health portion of the curriculum. Both wellness and athletics play a role in the social, mental, physical, and emotional development of the students, as well as providing important leadership and sportsmanship opportunities.

My Son the Rock~

This year, Westwood High's talented actors and actresses presented a comical show full of energy and laughter. My Son the Rock, written by Martin Follse, tells the story of a dorky prince, Prince Plucky, played by Steve Lewis, and his parents, King and Queen Norom, played by Bill Costanza and Morgan Kerchner. Catherine Frieman plays the King's annoyed and sarcastic assistant Ms. Brazen, who tries to keep the lazy and irresponsible King under control through all the castle chaos. The witch, Lauren Perkins, and sneaky Mr. Steelson, Eoghan Brennan, strike a deal and convince the King and Queen that their son has been turned into a rock. Ms. Will's directed the cast and crew as they used their incredible talent to keep the audience laughing and entertained. From the royal family and assistants, to the cooks and maids, each member of the cast was full of energy and enthusiasm. It was an amazing experience for all who participated, small and large parts alike.

Guys And Dolls~

This musical comedy took a lot of work, but the large cast and crew put in all the extra time and energy necessary to put on an outstanding show. Ms. Wills directed the actors, while Mr. Guirleo directed the musicians as all helped to present the dazzling, classic musical. Tiffany Berube portrayed Adelaide, the hot box dancer who has been engaged for 14 years to the goofy gambler Nathan, played by Stephen Lewis. Nathan and his hilarious sidekicks, played by Steven Lewis and Jon Davidson, make a once in a lifetime bet with famous gambler Skye Masterson, portrayed by Joey Cullinane, while trying to stall Nathan and Adelaide's beloved wedding. Samantha Sagui sang beautifully as Skye's love interest, Sarah, a member of the mission band. Eoghan Brennan and Morgan Kerchner also are fabulous as band members trying to spread God's word to the rotten gamblers. The musical and dancing scenes were full of energy from hot box dancers, gamblers, and mission band members alike, who all presented strong, sincere performances. The whole, tight-knit cast and crew were amazed by how solid and real their performances could be, from the costumes and make-up, set and lights, to the talented acting that took place onstage.

METCO AWARDS BANQUET

Spanish and French Honor Society

The purpose of the Foreign Language Department's Honor Societies is to encourage and commend excellence in the study of French and/or Spanish and to Foster continued study of the language.

Eligibility is based on strong academic achievement and is renewed annually. A student must be enrolled in a language course at the time of induction. An Induction ceremony is held in the Fall of each academic year to honor those students who have met these high standards.

La Societe Honoraire de Francias/Sociedad Honoraria Hispanica

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is a national organization that awards membership in recognition of student's scholarship, leadership, service, and character. After an assessment of a student's academic record in the junior year, qualified students are invited to apply for membership into the Westwood High School chapter.

As a demonstration of their individual commitment to the school and large community, members of NHS participate in a variety of projects. This year students helped organize the opening day of school, served as guides at the fall open house and the parent conference night, planted flowers at the entrance to the school and escorted TEC students each morning to homerooms. NHS members become penpals with kindergarten students in Westwood elementary schools and organized and ran a Red Cross blood drive at WHS in March.

Virtual High School

Virtual High School offers the students of Westwood High School a unique opportunity to broaden their horizons with a vast array of courses that they would not have access to through the curriculum at the high school. The courses available to the students of VHS span so many topics that we could not even begin to list them.

VHS allows students to learn in a setting that is very different from the typical classroom, as well as exposing them to the Internet in a very well guided and informative manner.

VHS is a safe educational forum that allows its students to reach far beyond the walls of their high schools in the pursuit of educational excellence. Students can sign up to learn what they want to learn; this alone is a big motivating factor when it comes to student's achievement.

Students are introduced to courses on topics that they find intriguing like DNA technology or Bioethics. The list of available courses in all subject areas is impressive.

The Internet becomes a classroom, teaching students valuable technology skills that they will need to succeed both in college as well as life the real world.

Legislative Council

The Legislative Council IS A Westwood High School Constitutionally-mandated organization that unites teachers, students and support staff in the formulation of policy for the Westwood High School community. Members of the Council participate in debates on proposals for handbook changes, investigate new policy changes, review the Constitution and handbook, propose amendments and sponsor two community meetings a year during which issues that impact the entire school and faculty

Judicial Council

The Judicial Council, one of the three branches of the Westwood High School student government, uses our school's Constitution to adjudicate and resolve all disputes within the WHS community, including those regarding appeals of administrative discipline. The council contains both faculty and student representatives, and hearings were run throughout the year by the two co-moderators, Mr. David Dore and Chris Burke. It is the hope of the Council that through our deliberations, justice is done and flaws in the governance system may be pointed out and corrected.

Executive Branch

The Executive Branch of Westwood High School this year is led by the principal, who exercises the power to assume the responsibilities, including disciplinary actions. The Principal is considered to be the Chief Executive, he implements the policies and rules of the School Committee, Central Administration, Legislative Council, and the decisions of the Judicial Council.

Student Advisory Board

Under the faculty direction to Mrs. Hayes, the Student Advisory Board (SAB) is an organization that helps to better the lives of students here at Westwood High School by planning events and fundraisers and setting up programs for scholastic benefit. The SAB meets every Thursday morning in the administrative conference room. This year we are setting up a brand new program which will give each homeroom a student government representative. This representative will periodically check in with his/her homeroom to take ideas, answer questions, and relay information. This program came about as a result of lack of communication between the students and their peer leaders. As always, the SAB will also be sponsoring the Giving Tree Donation program and a Social Awareness speaker week.

The Westwood Outdoor Club

The Westwood Outdoor Club is for Westwood youth, high school age, in grades nine through twelve. This club focuses on learning about the environment, teamwork and leadership skills. Members gain the knowledge of fire safety, emergency preparedness, basic first aid, safe hiking and camping, and activity planning. The Westwood Outdoor Club is a youth organization managed by its membership and sponsored by the Town of Westwood, Recreation Department. This is our crew's first year. We focused on ideas, planning and recruiting members to keep the club going in the future. We planned a few softball games and camped out overnight at Hale Reservation three times. Our crew has gained valuable knowledge of the outdoors and plan on passing it on to future members.

We The People

Welcome to the first ever Westwood High School government newspaper, We The People. This newspaper was created to keep students and faculty informed about the important activities, which impact everyone, of the school's government. For several years there was a gap between the work of the school's government organizations and the involvement and ideas of members of the WHS community who were not directly involved with these organizations. Now, hopefully, everyone will be more informed and consequently active in making WHS a better place for all. In We the People, interesting articles ranging from Legislative Council news to upcoming Student Council activities can be found. Our newly created website is constantly growing. Via this site, students can submit articles online that will be published in the next edition of We the People. Absolutely anyone can write an article for the newspaper, even those not involved in a particular student government organization. Editorials are also welcome! In addition, students can now become staff members of We the People by signing-up online and can e-mail

ELNA

The ELNA Collaborative (Educations and Leadership for a Non-Violent Age) works to provide leadership-training opportunities for high school students and educate members about diversity, tolerance, conflict resolution, and politically and socially sensitive issues. Students involved in ELNA at Westwood attend conferences and district organization meetings to share ideas with members from other schools. Upper classmen also contribute their expertise as facilitators at an annual middle school conference and all members attend monthly school ELNA meetings. The students continue to demonstrate enthusiasm for this extra-curricular activity. Many students have conveyed an interest to increase their participation in ELNA by designing programs that benefit Westwood High School and the community.

Interact

Improv

Though off to a rough start, the improv club managed to pull it together by mid-February for a stunning performance at the Talent Show. Wowing the judges with their dazzling "wits," they received a total score of -7. So, they continue to work hard and perfect their improving skills. Good luck next year!

Peer Counselors

The Peer Counselors are juniors and seniors who have been recommended and selected to participate in assisting younger students at Westwood High School. Peer Counselors meet throughout the year and work on developing positive attitudes toward helping others, leading groups and serving as positive role models for younger students. Student counselors lead discussion groups with topics ranging from peer pressure, to accepting differences in others, to getting ready for mid-year exams. Students counselors also work one-on-one with students regarding personal issues, and have represented the high school by assisting with activities in the community.

Youth Alive

Youth Alive is the student led school Bible Study. It is supervised by Mr. Dore. This year Youth Alive, in addition to weekly meetings, sponsored WHS's third annual See You At The Pole day. Youth Alive features occasional guest speakers in addition to student speakers.

Governance and Elections

Westwood Ambassadors

Westwood Ambassadors is a group of students who volunteer their time to give tours of the building to new parents and students. They help out during the summer vacations and throughout the school year. They help with eighth grade orientation and are available when new students want to spend a day attending classes with a Westwood student. These students also help new students make a smooth transition to the high school.

Student Council

2001 student council hosted a bunch of activities to raise money for school sponsored activities. Some of the activities include, spring fling, homecoming, firemen's foam. We welcomed our new faculty advisor Mr. Grover who ran student council like a professional. President: Conor Cashman, Vice President: Jesse Murray, Secretary: Jason Lambert, Treasurer: Ryan Scales. This was truly an unforgettable year for all.

SADD

Students against drunk drivers are an organization designed to heighten awareness of the dangers of driving while intoxicated.

Westwood Wire

This year, we got off to a fresh, with a new name and a new publisher. Having worked on the newspaper for the past four years, we consider it to have been an important part of our high school experience. Whether it was publishing controversial and inflammatory editorials or the latest development on the new school, we did our best to communicate the views and opinions of Westwood high school students. We can only hope that the momentum and enthusiasm that we have established will continue in the future. Good luck to next year's editors.

No Parentheses

No Parentheses is an annual literary magazine that seeks to give students the opportunity to publish their prose, poetry, and artwork. As the name of the club suggests (the title of a poem by E.E. Cummings), the staff looks for writing that tests the limits of language and exhibits personal style. Manuscripts are accepted from all (anonymously, if preferred) throughout the year- which usually come in slowly at first, then in floods by May. To encourage submissions, the highlight of the year is our prose and poetry contest, offering prizes up to twenty-five dollars. At the end of the year the staff works hard to type, evaluate, and proofread all works until a final product is completed - before Class Day in early June. Our magazine is always a carefully selected and thoughtful combination of talent. Congratulations to all contributors and best wishes for your future endeavors.

Academic Decathlon

In the past few years, the academic decathlon team has been increasingly successful making it to the state finals in 2000 for the first time in over a decade. Under the guidance of coach David Dore, the team studies specific subjects in the fields of Art, Music, Social Studies, Science, Language, and Literature, Math, and economics. This year's competition is based around the theme of "Understanding the Self" with some of the specific topics being Philosophy, Psychology, and Religion; The Biological Self; Images of Self; and World Sacred Music: Sounds of the Soul. Though this year's team boasts only two veterans hopes are running high for another trip to the States in April.

Drama Club

(AT CURTAIN: We are all in the Little Theater. Anywhere from 15 to 30 students from all different grades lounge on the raisers waiting for the meeting to start. Plans for the annual fall After Dinner Theater and the winter Kids on the Block Puppet Program are about to be announced by the club officers. Some of the club members are hoping to organize a special third production maybe in the spring, maybe some sort of Courtyard Theater with all the challenges of outdoor performing. The club officers, Steve Pilalas, Steve Lewis, and Serena Hon step up to the lectern. Advisor Ms. Kelsch nods at them and one of the Steves begins to speak. Instantly, the waiting students quiet down.)

Steve: Welcome to Drama Club! Our After Dinner Theater this year is going to feature Monty Python!! (enthusiastic response)

Another Steve: And we're also going to move our kids on the Block Handicapped Puppet program performances - whew! That's alliteration -to the high school, using the Extended Day area.

Serena: Now about that question regarding whether or not your name has to begin an "S" if you want to be a Drama Club officer.....

Chess Club

The Chess Club is open to all students interested in learning how to play the great game of chess. It meets, under the direction of Mr. Brendan Dillon, after school on Fridays during the school year. As well as having a Chess Club, Westwood High School also has had a very successful Chess Team. This team is made up of five to seven playing members who compete in the South Shore Interscholastic Chess League.

Westwood Wilderness Club

Newly formed this year under expert tutelage of Mr. Grover. We enjoyed hiking, biking, skiing, climbing, and other various outdoor excursions. Becoming one with nature is a deeply, fulfilling spiritual quest.

Break Dancing Club

We all ripped it old-style this year. Bill Costanza, Chris Kelly, and Ken Wan are gods. The Vortex will live forever. God Bless Buddy, Jesus, and Steve Lewis. Seth is the MAN. I like Scottish people. Do you know what's a funny word? Pickle-Weasle. Long live Australia, Rulers of the Universe.

Peer Educators

The Peer Educators found a neww direction this year under the direction of President Jenny Hannon and Secretary Maggie DiStasio. The group adopted "Respect yourself, respect others" as their year-long motto and participated in several training sessions to better prepare themselves to serve the Westwood High School community. Activities included a "You Make A Difference" week, a community respect bulletin board, positive decision making skits presented to the fifth graders in Westwood's elementary schools, and a host of other activities, including a buddy program with underclassmen.

Math Team

The math team was headed by a new teacher to Westwood High School this year. Ms. Sonnemann replaced Mrs. Relleva in guiding these math brains through four grueling meets. The team had fun hosting the first, the traveling to other competing schools for free refreshments at each school. The meets were split up into six rounds, each containing three challenging questions for our fearless representatives. Questions focused around the math topics taught at Westwood High School: Arithmetic, Algebra I, Geometry, Algebra II, and Advanced Topics. Five rounds were done on an individual basis. The last round was a team effort and always our best. When we put our heads together..The team consisted of all grade levels and experience. Everyone had fun and learned more about math than they ever thought they would. It showed on their report cards!!!!

Amnesty International

The members of Westwood High School's Amnesty chapter worked tirelessly to help restore the rights of political prisoners world wide, and also shifted their focus to local concerns, such as missing and abused children. The group met weekly to conduct letter writing and petition campaigns, establishing a permanent Amnesty booth in the cafeteria where students could obtain form letters or sign petitions to assist in campaigns to guarantee basic human rights everywhere. Catherine Frieman was the president of the group, with Chris Kelly serving as secretary and Heather Ford as information director. One of the group's most popular activities were the bimonthly write-a-thons/pizza parties. Mrs. Jo Ann Staiti served as the advisor of the group.

Dance Team

Step Troop

Mock Trial

Students involved in the Mock Trial team- lead by captain Catherine Frieman, co-captain Maia Sharuk, and team advisor Mrs. Jo Ann Staiti- take the role of witnesses and lawyers while arguing a case written by the Massachusetts Bar Association. Each March, they compete in three trials against other regional Massachusetts teams. The team in each region with the highest cumulative score advances to the State competition at the University of Massachusetts, Boston. Catherine and Maia, like most of the team, have been competing in Mock Trial competitions since eighth grade and hope to see Westwood at the States soon!

School Store

Ecolibrium

Ecolibrium is Westwood High School's environmental action club. President Morgan Kerchner, Vice-President/Publicity Director Heather Ford and Secretary Claudia Parent guided the club to its most active year yet, directing school-wide recycling efforts, a beach cleanup, a community cleanup, an Earth Day celebration and dance, and participation in the Massachusetts Envirothon. In addition, the club planted a wildflower garden for all the Westwood Pubic to enjoy. Eco's theme for the year was "Respect you Mother (Earth)" Ecolibrium's advisor is Mrs. Jo Ann Staiti.

Spectrum

Spectrum is made up of a group of students whose goal is to widen the Westwood school community's exposure to issues concerning people of alternative lifestyles and to promote tolerance through education. All students are welcome to participate. Thanks go out to Kristin Corcoran .

Unity

Unity is a group of students who sociall and civially recognizse everyone as equals. Unity held meetings during lunch where issues that we faced in our school, communities, and world, were discussed. At the beginning of the year we attended the annual Team Harmony Rally that is a central focus of discussions were racism, tolerance, and celebration of diversity. Being that everyone is equal in our group, we feel the need not to elect officers. Everyone has an opinion, not just one person.

Most Memorable Game: Playing Bellingham was one of the best games we have all been apart of. Although we lost, each player gave everything they have and left nothing out on the field. We realized how good we really could have been and how we were 36 seconds away from beating the Super Bowl champs.

The season started off with high aspirations because we were returning seventeen of twenty-two starters. Also, going into the pre-season, we were ranked second in the league behind our nemesis, the Bellingham Blackhawks. Captains practices set the tone as they were both grueling and exhausting. Then the time came when we headed down south for our first test of the young season. Duxbury, a strong division 2 team, had their eyes set on a bowl as well and had no intention of letting a small D-5 team push them around on their own turf. Although we lost 20-6, we put up a great fight and made them work up until the final seconds. Putting the out-of-division loss out of our minds we then traveled to Hop-town for our first league challenge. With a few mistakes and a few extra men on the field (the guys with pin stripes and yellow flags) Hopkinton pulled off a 19-7 victory. After a bad game against the surprisingly strong Dover-Sherborn team, the only bright spot being Pete Kellner's amazing TD catch, we broke through into the win column with a 21-7 victory under the lights the following week in Ashland. We embarrassing them in front of the huge homecoming crowd of ten parents and three students. After another heart-breaking loss against one of the top teams in the TVL, we traveled to Medway to see if we could put a damper on their homecoming. We shut them down on both sides of the ball and won 13-0. We then returned to Westwood to play in our homecoming game against the powder blue Warriors from Medfield. We played well beating them 36-0 through three-quarters until our JV/freshman team lost to their varsity squad 12-0 in the fourth. Our winning streak was extended to three games with an impressive 27-7 win against Wayland, the D-2 team with Warren Sapp at defensive tackle. The next week we played the best game of the season, giving the Super Bowl bound Blackhawks a run for their money in a nail-biter that wasn't decided until the final minute. The season drew to a close with our traditional Thanksgiving Day battle against Holliston. Unfortunately we lost key players due to suspension and injury which hindered our chances but we gave it all that we had in a 28-6 loss.

Senior Standouts:

Allie Urbanek- She is so amazing, on and off the field. Allie could always have a good time whether she was on the field or off, she can really get the job done! She will be missed.

Kim Carlson- Kimmy started playing during junior year, she caught on so quickly she was definitely one of the best additions to the team. She also was tons of fun. We miss her too!

Most Memorable Game

MEDFIELD We played an amazing 60 minute game. Even though it was an away game we had so many fans with us and our side was generating such noise.

DS-Our last home game. We ruined their chance to go to tourney so they trashed our locker room. Our spirits were so high that we could not be brought down!

We had fun! From the beginning of the season we could all tell this was not going to be like any other. Everyone knew the season would be hard; we were practically a brand new team. None of us expected the team would be as good as we turned out to be we meshed really well, like sisters. We had a lot of close calls. Our most difficult games both physically and mentally were against Bellingham and Holliston, and Medfield. However despite the difficulties we made it. Good luck too next year's captains, seniors, and the team.

Captains: Maggie DiStasio, Kristen Mascia

request to Next Year's Team:

Keep the tradition!...keep the record better than the boys' (let's see who deserves more fans!)...never let Medfield win again...Good Luck!

Senior Stand-outs:

Katie Goodfellow: KTG fueled the team with her post-game confections, keeping the selection varied with chocolate chip, sugar, peanut butter, or oatmeal cookies. She used her great book-keeping skills during the games, and without her huge team spirit, the team could not have been what it was.

Erin Beechinor: About half-way into the season, this skilled senior was hit hard with a severe ankle injury. The loss of one of our best players really affected the team's play for a bit, but Erin more than made up for her absence on the field with her die-hard, passionate team spirit. She was an inspiration to the team.

Rebecca Schwartz: Rebecca was yet another of the team's unsung heroes. She was an awesome player with unbelievable team spirit. She really urged the team forward by making some key plays on the field.

The season began with only eight returning varsity players - four seniors, one junior, and three sophomores. We lost thirteen seniors to graduation, including ten of our starting eleven. With a lot of places to fill on the field, Coach Niles was forced to pull up some underclassmen reinforcements, most notably two freshman fullbacks. We started off sluggishly, giving up a few unnecessary wins in the first half of the season. But when the season was drawing to a close and we realized we needed five wins out of our last regular season games, we pulled together. The team made an excellent run, starting a winning streak and making it to the tourney. Representing last year's squad, the Wolverine girls defeated Medway in their second tournament game to advance to the South Section quarter-finals. We lost in a heart-breaker to Medfield in the quarters, a team whom we had beaten twice during the regular season. Nonetheless, we had gone further

GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY

CAPTAINS: Jill Kahlert, Erin Kinney, Lauren Perkins

SUMMARY OF SEASON:

This year's season was fun and exciting. With a lot of new runners, this year's cross country team was the largest in years. Everyone ran well, and some ran even farther than they had to. This happened at our meet against Medfield High School when Katie and Bridget accidentally took a detour and ran an extra mile. With a lot of new, inexperienced runners, we had only a couple wins but a really good time. However, we gained the experience we needed and next year's team will definitely make its mark.

Summary Of Season: This year's season for the boys cross country team was made up new, inexperienced runners. With no seniors on the team, the majority of experience came from juniors Andrew Carlsen and John Sharry. Andrew Carlsen finished second in the league with a personal best of a 16:30 for 2.85 miles. However, freshman Greg Scanlon holds a lot of promise for the next three years at Westwood High School. Scanlon ran a personal best of 17:02 for 2.85 miles vs. Dover/Sherborn. This year's new comers gained the experience they needed so that next year boys cross country will be more promising.

Summary of Season:

We had a great season this year, everyone was really close and we had a lot of fun. There were a lot of expectations for us, and we lived up to all of them. We won the Tri-Valley league title with an undefeated record, which included two huge wins over our rival Medfield. We won both the Norwood Tournament and our Westwood Winter Classic to finish the regular season 20 -0. The post-season started off well with home wins over both Foxboro and Medway. Due to a snowstorm we avoided Massasoit (and the curse) by playing Burke in the semifinals at Stonehill. We then beat Norwell at UMass Boston for the right to play in the EMass Finals at the Fleet Center! After beating Newburyport in front of a really supportive Westwood crowd, we made the trip to Worcester for the Division 3 State Finals. The championship game was definitely the roughest one we played, but we pulled through and beat Littleton by 20 to win Westwood's first girls basketball state championship since 1985.

Most Memorable Game:

The most memorable game was either the EMass final game at the Fleet Center against Newburyport or the Div. 3 State Championship at the Worcester Centrum. The EMass championship game was a really important game for us because the stakes were incredibly high. We were facing Newburyport, a team that came in with an undefeated record like ours. Playing at the Fleet Center was an experience never to be forgotten. The game at the Centrum was exciting but also a little bittersweet since we all knew it was the last time we'd all play together as a team. We all really pulled together and finished the season off strong with a win over Littleton and a stellar half-court celebration. The feeling of finally being able to win a state championship for Riles, Kelly and Christy and most of all for ourselves was the best part of the season.

Most Memorable Game:

Westwood Vs. Medfield. It was a very close game as always with Medfield. Four out of 5 of us were able to rise to the challenge to beat them.

Senior Standouts:

Stephanie Sweeney and Michelle Caruso. Two members who were always there when the pressure was on for the team. They were some of our best cheerers and fans.

Memories:

Bagels, Coolattas, no man's land and beating Medfield to become Tri-Valley Champions.

BEATING THE ODDS: WESTWOOD ICEMEN

MOST MEMORABLE GAME

The team headed to Franklin for a rematch with the undefeated Warriors of Medfield. In their first meeting, the Warriors handed Westwood their second loss in the TVL. However this would be their last. This time the Wolves were out to settle some unfinished business with Medfield. Both teams were kept off the board in the first period thanks to an outstanding performance by freshmen goalie Brian Zarther. The game proved to be a battle of who could survive the physical style of playing the longest. The Westwood defense held it's ground the entire game led by senior captain Brian Doherty and league all-star junior Mark Reily. The Wolves physical defense and scrappy offense kept the Warriors frustrated. However it was Medfield who struck first at the start of the second period. Undaunted the Wolves would not slow down. Westwood answered right back two minutes later with a rap-around goal from senior Captain Matt Cosgrove. The score remained tied at 1-1 thanks to Zanthier. Westwood would strike again in the 3rd period with time winding down. Tim Holden went 5-hole on the Medfield goalie with 4 minutes left in the period to give Westwood the lead. Medfield however would answer back with just 1:33 left on the clock. Much to the disappointment of the Wolves, the game ended with the score tied. Even though Westwood did not get the win, we still proved to the rest of the league that we were for real. Tying the second seated team in the Emass was no easy task. Thanks to our determination the Wolves held tough. We are not to be taken lightly and Medfield will remember that for many years to come.

Captains: Matt Cosgrove and Peter Barr

The Icemen of Westwood High came into the season without knowing what to expect. Despite key losses after last year's graduation, the boys were determined to be a contender in the TVL and make a name for themselves in the Division. To do this Westwood would have to hold its own against tough Tri-Valley league teams including defending league champs Medfield, and rivals Holliston and Bellingham. The Wolves started off the season with a slight letdown against Bellingham but from there the boys were on a mission. The Wolves went on to win convincing games against Medway, DS, Hopkinton, and a last minute thriller against Holliston. After this there was no turning back as the team went into Franklin Arena with a showdown against undefeated Medfield. It was an extremely well played game by the whole team, however the Wolves were only able to come away with a tie against the first place Warriors.

After a good show down in the Vineyard, the Icemen headed into the EMASS tournament as the 9th seed. The boy's first game proved to be a great win with Westwood just too strong for the 8th seeded team from Wareham. From there the team had their work cut out for them as we were forced to travel to Bourne to face top-seated Hanover. Despite the tremendous determination of the Icemen, we were unable to stop Hanover, who went on to become State Champs. Despite this unhappy exit from the tournament, the Westwood Icemen finished 2nd in the TVL, and ended with a respectable record of 13-6-2

CAN WE GET AN "Awww, Si?"

The team only lost one senior to graduation, we added a few freshmen, thus the team was pretty much the same as last year. The Westwood girls closed the season as winners, with one of the best records in the clubs history. Sophomore speedsters Alena Harrison and Caroline Donahue led the team offensively, while junior Christine Ryan, senior Mary Fitzgerald and top freshmen newcomer Anne Sargent picked up the defensive flack. A random bunch of girls spanning every grade with a talented group of sophomores sure to be future team-leaders. Our chemistry on and off the ice was a force to be reckoned with, something the seven seniors on the team will never forget after graduation.

Most Memorable Game

The most memorable game of the year was by far the Emass DIV II Quarter final against Lincoln-Sudbury. Although we displayed some of our best efforts in the 2 previous winning match ups against LS, this game was special. We started off the game behind 1-0. A short handed goal by Kristin Mascia tied the score for Westwood, eventually sending the game into overtime. As if the game weren't exciting enough already, what happened between periods is what made the game unforgettable. After an unusually long time in the locker room between periods, some curious team members went to investigate what the hold up was. They returned to report the zamboni had broken down on the ice. No one on the premises knew what to do with this broken zamboni. Not only could no one fix it, no one had any idea of just how to remove it from the ice. We pleaded for anybody with any mechanical or technical skill in the audience "is there a mechanic in the house?" It is rumored our very own C. Kacamburas gave the zamboni problem a shot. After about 40 minutes of being told to "get your helmets on", only to find it was a false alarm the team returned to the ice. There, finally, in OT, Christina Baldassari had the shot that gave Westwood its third win over Lincoln-Sudbury and another trip to the finals.

Memories:

Much "RESPECT" to Aretha, Martha's Vineyard and wild ferry rides, CAUTION; spaghetti, one crazy game of poker, absolutely NO toilet paper ever, locker room jam sessions, soccer on ice, chalk talk and tootsie pops, dimar's brownies, the eye of the tiger, and the fire inside.

Senior Standouts:

Kaity Clifford: Always tried her best, a speed demon in the locker room-get out of her way because she's tenacious

Shelia Kelly: Perhaps the most notorious member of the Dream Team, she finally understood the meaning of "offsides" by the end of the season.

Most Memorable Meet: Having lost all four of our previous meets, we faced Ashland in our final meet looking for a win. The meet was tied heading into the final event, and with a not so solid 4x400 relay team, we won the meet!

MEMORIES:

MOST MEMORABLE MEET:

We really thought we could beat the worst team in the league, Ashland, but no that didn't quite work out. But it was a close meet with lots of great individual races.

SENIOR STANDOUTS:

Joanne McCarthy is a naturally talented thrower who always guaranteed the team a place in shot put and a possible five points for first. Lauren Perkins was ranked fifth for high jump in a league consisting of 3 state champion level jump-ers. She also placed in two running events every meet.

"Set your goals high, and don't stop 'till you get there" -Bo Jackson. We had a few setbacks with the weather to start off the season. Our first game against Medfield was a tough one. It was our first game outside and we had no experience playing as a team due to constant rain cancellations. After that upsetting loss, we came back to win our next six games which included beating the top team in the league, Holliston. It was the second time in seventeen years that we beat the league powerhouse. Our winning streak ended when we played Ashland at home for the first time this year. We also suffered a couple of tough loses; one to arch rival Medfield in the bottom of the seventh inning and another heartbreaker to Holliston at home in extra innings. It's hard for any team to come back after losing a couple of games in a row, but we pushed ourselves above and beyond our expectations in practice to come back and win our last five games of the regular season. With an 11-5 record we landed the ninth seed in the South sectional bracket of the Division Three tournament. A solid defensive performance and timely hitting helped us battle past the No. 8 seed, Norfolk Aggie. We then went on to play top seeded Tri-County on their home turf. Once again, stellar defense and big hits were the keys to our success. This victory brought us to our goal that we had set before tournament had started. We had finally made it passed the second round in tournament, something that no other Westwood High softball team has done. We piled on the bus and made our way to Brockton's Eastside Improvement Association Field. This is where all South section semifinal and final games took place. Our opponent was Westport, a team very similar to us. Although we played almost a flawless game, we were unable to get the runs we needed to capitalize. But sometimes the journey has to be its own reward.

With a loss of several talented graduated seniors this year, Girls Track suffered in scoring. With a record of 0-7 we were unsuccessful in winning as a team; however, we achieved personal bests throughout the season. Team spirit and morale was high this year with everyone working to support the team. Several people took on new events in an attempt to help the team, whether it was only for one meet or all of them. Two new head coaches, Ms Crosby and Ms Borchers, were motivating forces throughout the season, pushing us to do our best, and reminding us of it all by giving us personal best cards. Overall our record was no as strong as past seasons, but we had a lot of fun and that's what it's all about!

Memories: Sharing the bus with Ursuline, flying discus, random downpours, the 10 hills of agony, Kiani's phone hummer, playing soccer, getting beat by Ms. Crosby and Ms Borchers, 5 mile run, spaghetti dinners, never listening to the mix tape

SUMMARY OF SEASON: In the spring season of 2001, we had many ups and downs. The biggest down of the season was when our fearless leader Todd could not play. As the season went on, we realized that it was not about winning, but rather the season was depicted by how many different ways we could psyche each other out. So, we tightened up our little hats and ended up the season on a 3-3 comeback tear.

Class Day Thursday May 31, 2001

Class Day Speech, Maia Sharuk

I've been freaking out for the past two weeks about this speech and Finally one night last week I sat down and began to write. I wanted to stay Away from saying that this is the end, because it really isn't, and isn't really a beginning either, but let me talk about what I'm here for. I'm here totalk about class history. More than 4 years ago, we sat at this little ceremony in the middle school receiving a completion certificate. We were finally done! We all felt so cool that we were going to high school. Then we came here and we really didn't feel so cool anymore. We were small, lost and not ready for what was to come. First off, everyone was huge, well for me, everyone is huge. But moving on. Language Arts now became English, social studies was now history, and the library became the media center, but I don't think many people call is the media center to this day. Freshman year was an adventure. Sports and activities became integrated into our schedules like eating, note taking went from jotting down key ideas to scribbling everything the teacher said as quickly as possible, and midyears. We didn't even see those coming! The old middle school schedule had blocks numbered while now we had to deal with letters. The bell went from a real ringing to this bizarre buzzing noise. We had our first spring fling complete with dress up days. Social awareness week was new to us and the entire school could actually fit in the music room. We also watched two senior boys mix whipped cream and sardines into a dance snack at the Mr. Westwood High dance. We came, we learned, we were ready. Sophomore year came and we watched new kids come up and look as lost as we did. It was sweet pleasure. We were ready for the rotating schedule, two lunch blocks, and even referrals. As a class we had made it through our first year successfully and now it was our turn to teach others. Sophomore year was a relief, with similar activities, bossing freshmen around to do everything, and of course MCAS testing. Who can forget the endless hours of grueling testing complete with donuts And juice. But sophomore year had come and gone. The letters A and P were Still nothing more than the 1st and 17thwait16th letters in the alphabet. We were young, idealistic, optimistic, and carefree. Our world was nothing more than pink bunnies, chirping birds, pretty flowers, and sleep. Then the evil frost of junior year, SATs and TJB froze all our hopes and dreams. Junior year was pure mayhem! We were finally upperclassmen and we knew It would be tough, but nothing prepared us for the slap in the face. Sleep was a feature of the pass, Microsoft word became our best friend, and the Social scene disappeared into oblivion. Our Saturday mornings were taken by SATs and prep courses. Then teachers decided to spring on us that we actually had to start visiting colleges. Thanks to Ms. Kelcsh's vacation policy "hey, I want a vacation from grading, so I figure you get a vacation from working" we had a little bit of time. And we made it, as a class. We watched the longest class we had been with graduate, and knew that next year it would be us. Then senior year had finally approached. I remember walking the first day wearing my senior t-shirt feeling like the ultimate ruler, even though no one actually believed I was a senior. Senioritis kicked in the day we finished junior year. Unfortunately we had to deal with the stupid college system which in my opinion is the most impractical and ridiculous system to ever be created. But , we're here now and we're ready to go off. We made it through our last midyears, last finals, and last classes of high school, but hey we're not done yet. We just had our beach trip Tuesday, and we got to bond again, but that doesn't mean we won't later in life. We may be from high school, and we may not be in the same building, but we're still the class of 2001 and each and every one of us will have that, that bond that ties us all. We've been through a lot together. We watched three class day ceremonies, and we're finally here. It our turn guys to leave this place, but we'll still see each other when our paths cross, and they will.

Paul Garaffo's Welcome Address

Dr. Ash, Mr. Flahive, faculty, fellow students, parents, alumni, relatives, and friends, I welcome you to the Westwood High School 2001 graduation ceremonies. We the class of 2001 sit before you as not merely graduating students, but as the academic, scholars, athletes, actors, actresses, debaters, and student representatives that we have worked to hard to become. The last four years here at Westwood High have given us the opportunity to be all of these things and much more, for we are all a class of friends who have become as committed and interwoven in the fabric of this school as many of the classes who came here before us. Though we may be leaving our school behind as we embark upon our journey into our own futures and our own destinies, we will not leave behind the friendship and memories formed in these halls and on these fields. The bonds that we have created between not only the other members of our class, but with the underclassmen and upperclassmen who stood here not long ago, cannot be denied and just as assuredly cannot be broken. In a few years this building will be torn down and a new and improved building will be erected in its place, and perhaps the memory of the "old high school will fade. But our memories of it will not fade, and though the walls can be destroyed and the windows broken and doors unhinged, our experience, and more importantly our friendships cannot be destroyed, broken or unhinged. Though our absence may not be felt in the halls or on these fields in the years to come, we will feel the absence of this place, of our school, for as much as we have been waiting and willing to leave high school, we will surely miss it. But we are prepared to go. The experiences we have shared in and out of school have taught us the skills we will need to face the uncertain world that we are about to enter. With the help of the entire Westwood community, the unparalleled commitment of the faculty, and the support of our parents and relatives our class has reached its highest potential. But it has been the demands we placed on ourselves, whether it be in sports, drama, or our studies, which truly has prepared each member of our class for the real world. However, the lessons we have learned out of school go far beyond anything we were ever taught in class, for in the last four year we often learned the hard way that every action carries consequences, and that we must learn to either face or accept them. So in a few, the chairs will be put away and the stands will be empty, and we will be forced to face that real world. But we leave with the confidence and fortitude that our community has instilled in us. I was once told that every exit is an entry somewhere else, so as we leave Westwood High, remember that though we may be leaving high school, we will be entering a new world, a world where the life we choose to lead can be everything we ever imagine. It is true that today marks an end of sorts; the end our high school years. But it also marks the beginning of the rest of our lives and a time when all our hopes and dreams can come true. In the words of Robert Browning "the best is yet to be". So today is not the time to look back on high school and think regretfully of the choices we made of did not make, but rather it is a time to think back with longing on every single treasured moment and odd memory that comes to mind. Do not idly postpone these thoughts of experiences, but learn from them and carry them beyond high school so that they may be remembered. I ask you today to not cry because all this is over, but smile because all of it happened, and I say congratulations to the class of 2001 and good luck. Thank you.

- I, Elizabeth Gale, leave Bucky to Bennett.
- I, Paul Garaffo, leave to the Boys Track Team escape routes from Hargreaves; my limited edition Star Wars movie to whomever will take it; and a romantic legacy to all of the Westwood girls.
- I, Katie Goodfellow, leave to Emily Frost and Cara Devins the Beatles and endless laughter, to Kristen Barnico luck and happiness here at WHS, and to my brother Johnny, some better music.

I, Jerry Hannon, leave Elizabeth Piersons directions to Quinnipiac, Ali Rose a Cheesecake Factory menu, and Katie Pateman online talks. To the softball and volleyball teams, I wish them good luck.
 I, Mark Harrison, leave the Cat the Chris Ferrantino and a fulfilling indoor track season to Mark Burton.
 I, Beth Heaney, leave Spizzico to Alex; field trips and cravings to my fh homeslices; and to Bridget, my almost sister, memories and sugar packets.
 I, Meg Heneberry, leave the Lax girls bus rides, to Becky and Amy all my love, and to Duff all the Dispatch and snowboarding in the world. Good luck!
 I, Margaret Hermosa, leave Whitney Conroy my locker and stickers, Karen Schredni my favorite pants and Kerri Scales shotgun in the Corolla.
 I, Ali Hesck, leave Suzanne- my twin sista, all the "Wildflowers" in the world; Austin I leave our friendly "neighborhood"; Adam I leave my strength to help you see your value and to you three I leave you some of our best laughs, greatest talks and warmest moments. I love you guys!
 I, Katie Holbrook, leave Ali Rose endless rides in the Geo amd a state championship to all my basketball girls!
 I, Jeff Houle, leave my locker in the science wing to Tom Roach, I leave my advice to those sophomores (BD, AD, MK, and even though I didn't really know him, SK). Finally, I leave my locker room chair to Higgs.
 I, Dave Johnson, leave T, Big D, and Elliot my spot in the circle at sessions.
 I, Michael Jurovaty, leave to Ivan Fatty, Mike Narce hospital bills, Mark Narce my helmet, Becky a lack of sexiness, Melissa five minutes, and to Jeanne I leave a promise.
 I, Jill Kahlert, leave my continued success to the girls X-country team.
 I, Ishmail Kahrim, leave Big Pimpen to Chris T and Big D, Creepen to the whole gang of wild ———, and sailing with the captain to every Columbus day weekend.

 I, Jason Lambert, leave my position at the helm to Doug Collins, to my parents peace of mind, and to Elizabeth, the Bronco (smell and all).
 I, Becky Lennon, leave to my field hockey team great memories, to my fellow dancers I leave a passion that will never fade, to Alex: La Vasca, to my brother Josh, a big high-five, and to Andy: have a great four years.
 I, Michelle Lew, leave my sister, Nikki, a great WHS experience and to the girls tennis team, bagels, mix tapes, and gallons of water to dump on the courts.
 I, Nina Lowy, leave to my sister Erica, Friends nights, and Remy's love and affection.
 I, Ashley Luongo, leave endless hours of fun-filled field hockey games, practices, and parties of all the girls who are cool enough to play.
 I, John Lynch, leave nothing to no one.
 I, Matt MacDonald, leave my sense of humor to Mike Genes.
 I, John Maione, leave my high school life to Westwood high and my life to Jessie Senton.
 I, Adam Majid, leave to John Stoker to LB, may it see years of use. I leave Ken Wan his locker, I leave Paul Watters my brain, I leave Adam Monroe hack sessions, I leave Chris Jordan some hair gel.
 I, Ruben Marcial Jr, leave Candace Bass my seat on the Bus and more importantly my heart.
 I, Karen Martell, leave hours of formatting and press seniority to Madeline Noonan and Samantha Paris, and lots of luck to Brian Martell.
 I, Kristen Mascia, leave to my sister the Aerostar (AKA the UAV, AKA the Mo-fo mobile, AKA the Green Machine); to my brother, some intelligence; to L. Frank, a winter hat; and to my hockey girls "the Humpty Dance" and the "Wild Thing."
 I, Chirs Mastaj, leave the football team to Joe and Owen. You guys aren't that big, eat something. Joey don't crash the car geek, love ya Buddy.
 I, Michelle Mastrobattista, leave the girls ice hockey team 4:30 am practices and lots of Dance Parties with the coaches.
 I, Lauren Mazzola, leave Maruta Augis to Blue Mobile to cruise around in. I leave Amy Deluca the neighborhood.
 I, Kathryn McCarron, leave the field hockey team a great season and many memories. I leave the Festival theatre class another winning show- break a leg! I leave my friends the memories we all share and my parents peace and quiet!
 I, Joanne McCarthy, leave "Lights Out" at Ground Round and Bickfords to Mike V and Herson M.
 I, Dave McD, leave to JJ, Jimmy, Shap, Suzy, Jack L, and Monroe a zipper in locker number 420 and the Wasted Youth Cabin at Hale.

I, Christoher Michael McIntyre III, leave to the future of Westwood High. . . an empty stomach and an unquenchable thirst.
 I, Ryan McKernan, leave my terrible driving record to my sister.
 I, Patty Moore, leave my brain to the science lab for substance testing.
 I, Julianne Mortelliti, leave to Erica L five dolla' fankicks.
 I, Chris Mullen, leave to my brother Bob "The Ticket" and the ability to MH's. To the ZC, I leave my scraps.
 I, Chrissie Murray, leave Brian chewy and many funny moments, and Katy good times and memories.
 I, Jesse Murray, leave to my brother Brad, my luck with ladies. Good luck kid and have fun with senior year!
 I, James O'Connor, leave Caryn and Anica the right to regulate on Math Team, and to Josh all the space in the pit band.
 I, Kara O'Connor, leave Kerri O'Brien shotgun in the trooper.
 I, Gina Oliveri, leave to Nikki a hug & kiss!
 I, Kristyn Osganian, leave Karen Schredni Girl Talks, and Kerri Scales my brother Brian, and Whitney Conroy my smile.
 I, Melissa Park, leave the future festival class my hackey sack and another awesome, fun-filled year.
 I, Evan Parker, leave the writing lab PC's to Andres Avellan.
 I, Barbara Paz, leave "Lights Out" at Ground Round and Bickfords to Mike V. and Herson M.
 I, Lauren Perkins, leave my sister, Gina, the green beast (oh wait, we know what happened to that). I leave girls' track super diva power. I leave festival the strength of kryptonite.
 I, Nikole Perkins, leave Danielle A. many venting memories in the Beast, and many "to the bleacher" memories to the swim team.
 I, Nicholas R. Pirelli, leave the Westwood Outdoor Club to Michael Gens and Andrew Wong.
 I, Lauren Plate, leave the Drop-In Center to Dietzel and Lindsey.
 I, Kaitlyn Powers, leave to my sisters my parents undivided love and attention, and to Annie 3 more exciting years at WHS.
 I, Cara Reich, leave to Corey the enthusiasm to explore new music and the guts to go get the Abbey Road album.
 I, Tony Ristano, leave my sense of humor to Steve Schreiber.
 I, Teresa Roach, leave to the Festival Class of 2001 the power to win. I also leave next year's field hockey team endless hours of circuit running, Good luck guys!
 I, Tara Sadooghi, leave Austin, Suzanne, and Adam this quote: "The best kind of friend is the kind you can sit on a porch swing with, never say a word, and then walk away feeling like it was the best conversation you ever had. . ."
 I, Kalim Saliba, leave my brother Samer to all the blondes of Westwood High. I also leave a little part of Lebanon and the Orgasmatron.
 I, Ryan Robert Scales, relinquish to Joshua Weinstein a bachanalian of the recently deceased.
 I, Rebecca Schwartz, leave my sister Leah the minivan; and to Julie Chase, the Cyclone runs.
 I, Snoop Todd, leave to Amyla 307-XTY, and my ability to survive high school by doing nothing. To the ZC all my beautiful scraps. To Higgs and Bobbby I leave the Dickey and Stevie tradition. Peace out.

I, Kian Setayesh, bequeath my extensive collection of Nintendo games as well as my library of Nintendo power magazines to Josh Weinstein in the hope that one dya, he will be as great a man as I.

I, Maia Sharuk, leave swim team food to Danielle A, my fourth grade power to Joey, "Friends" power to Sarah R my bag twin, and my faith, mock trials, and all I am to my sister. Deena.

I, Meredith Skibinski, leave my sister Kilary all that remains of Blue Bird, Rory my locker, and Ashley nervous car rides.

I, Dan Small, leave my ability to sleep through school to whomever can step up to the challenge!

I, Robby Steeves, leave my bad additute to all the school.

I, Liz Sullivan, leave my whining and complaining to Ms. Walsh, my argumentative behavior to Mr. Burke, and 3 more years of good times to Kelly Stanton.

I, Stephanie Sweeney, leave to my sister Alexandra mom and dad's undivided attention and many snooker games, to the tennis team many bagels, and to Mr. Kodzis many math cubes, and to Festival- Kryptonite.

I, Hillary Taglienti, leave Stephanie Taglienti the responsibility of representing the name Taglienti.

I, Allison Urbanek, leave all my underclassmen friends unrestrained free blocks.

I, Jessie Villiard, leave behind my flower to all who like it, and fun times for my cousins.

I, Nicole Villiard, leave behind to all the underclassmen whatever I cannot take with me.

I, Danielle Washienko, leave to Sue Caru, suzie greenberd, normal citizens, a smile, a plane ticket, and shotly. I also leave you my love and the wish that you will do what makes you smile! I love you. Peace.

I, Brandy Watters, leave "The Norwood Kids" to Danielle and the backstabbing to the little kids.

I, Jessica Wentworth, leave the unfair teachers to the freshman. Have fun!

I, Jennifer Williams, leave behind all my anger and frustration for WHS.

I, Malorie Williams, leave my seat on the Metco Bus to Herson M. I leave much love love to Kerrian- You're the best, keep it up.

I, Peter Zoummar, leave my cousins: Marc, Simon, and Waseem the long lasting and undying respect of being the Leb crew.

Morgan Kerchner

*Morgan-Your intellect and creativity have been an inspiration to all of us.
You have given us more joy (and grief) than you will ever know.
Go forward, taking risks,
and following both your intuition and your dreams. Your Daddy
would be so proud!
Love - Mom and Mark*

Congratulations Margaret!

Our best wishes as you continue to fulfill your dreams. You are doing great and we are very proud of you!

We love you!

Best Wishes to the Class of 2001!

Beautiful tomorrows are wished for you...

Beginning today
and lasting your whole life through.

-Douglas Richards

Gina Oliveri

Ginabina, Bobinks, Chubby Cheeks
You're the Best!

Appreciate all that you have done and embrace the gifts you have been given.

When you look in the mirror, you should be filled with pride.

You are a pleasure to be around and you make the world a better place.

Have fun everyday!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Nikki, and "KeeKee"

Paul Bisceglia

Paul,

Your strong spirit will have guided you through what seemed to be an impossible situation to cope with.

Reach for your dreams with the strength of your character and you will surely achieve the goals you set for yourself in life.

We are very, very proud of you!

Love,
Dad, Sue, Keith, and Judi

Way to go Killer!
Go get em' Tiger!
Good Luck Brother!

MICHELLE CARUSO

Michelle,
We're so proud of what you have accomplished at WHS.
We want you to be happy and successful in whatever path you choose. We're behind you all the way!

Love,
Dad, Mom, Joseph, and Bernie

Ashley Luongo

SO HERE SHE IS
OUR LITTLE GIRL
SHE GREW SO FAST
LIKE IN A WHIRL
THE YEARS WENT BY
AND NOW THEY'RE GONE
COLLEGE LOOMS
AT THE CRACK OF DAWN

THE MEMORIES REMAIN SO CLEAR
SHE WILL ALWAYS BE
OUR ASHLEY DEAR
HER FUTURE
IT'S SO VERY BRIGHT
THE CONSENSUS IS
SHE'S DYNAMITE

BUT JUST REMEMBER
WHAT WE SAID
WORK HARD, STAY FOCUSED
YOU'LL GET AHEAD
BE KIND TO OTHERS
AS YOU'VE ALWAYS BEEN
YOUR FRIENDSHIP
IS TOTALLY GENUINE

YOUR FAMILY WILL MISS YOU
AND THAT'S FOR SURE
BUT YOUR TIME IS NOW
SO WE WILL ENDURE

FLY AWAY THEN
TO WHAT THE FUTURE WILL BRING, IN OUR EYES
YOU'RE SO DESERVING
OF EVERYTHING

WE ARE SO PROUD
OF WHO YOU ARE
AND WHAT YOU'VE DONE
YOU WILL ALWAYS BE OUR NUMBER ONE

A Special Celebration
by
Sarah Folsom

The most important celebration
is the one inside of me.
A special celebration
for only me to see.
An important celebration
is when I've reached a goal,
I feel as though I've got,
to where I want to go.
Another celebration
is when I know,
I've touched another person's heart
and made them feel so...
Good

But the best celebration,
that I've ever known,
Is when I'm happy that I'm me,
and know I'm not alone.
I'm most happy when I know,
that I have not failed to show,
Just what I am inside.

Congratulations on your graduation!
Love,
Mom & Dad, Brian & Julia
